Questions Interview Chapter Lead

Coding Standards:

- Are there specific coding standards that need to be used?

- Are there particular coding conventions or guidelines we should follow in the development of this tool?

- Do you have preferences regarding code readability, maintainability, or scalability?

Programming Languages and Services:

- Is there a preferred programming language for this project?

- What services do you prefer for hosting and serving images?

Content Output:

- Are there specific requirements concerning the formatting or structure of the generated content?

- Are there performance requirements that the tool needs to meet?

Integration and Implementation:

- Are there existing systems or platforms with which this tool needs to integrate?

- In your view, what is needed to make the proof of concept usable and implementable?

- And what about the output?